

EBORACUM ROMAN FESTIVAL

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON ROMAN YORK: SHOWCASING CURRENT ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESEARCH

Friday 23rd May 2025, 1pm–5pm
Tempest Anderson Hall, Yorkshire Museum

12.45pm	Please arrive at Tempest Anderson Hall
1.00pm–1.05pm	WELCOME AND HOUSEKEEPING Dr. Andrew Woods, York Museums Trust
1.05pm–1.10pm	SESSION 1 INTRODUCTION: NEW PERSPECTIVES ON OBJECTS Dr. Eva Mol, University of York
1.10pm–1.50pm	Seeing the Dead in Eboracum: New Research on York's Gypsum Burials Professor Maureen Carroll, University of York
1.50pm–2.30pm	New work on the 1864 Knaresborough Hoard of Roman copper-alloy vessels Professor James Gerrard, Newcastle University
2.30pm–3.00pm	BREAK Refreshments to be served in the Fairfax Room
3.00pm–3.05pm	SESSION 2 INTRODUCTION: NEW PERSPECTIVES ON EBORACUM David Harbourne, Yorkshire Philosophical Society
3.05pm–3.45pm	The Living Mosaic of Eboracum: An integrated bioarchaeological perspective on York in the Roman Empire Elisha Meadows, University of York
3.45pm–4.25pm	Roman York – New Perspectives Professor Martin Millett, University of Cambridge
4.25pm–4.45pm	SUMMARY AND CLOSE Dr. Andrew Woods, Dr. Eva Mol, and David Harbourne